

Publication Agreement

This License defines the terms for the submission of all materials, including the primary submission and supplemental materials such as figures, tables, and media files (collectively known hereafter as “Reflection”) in all formats to the Journal of Reflective Inquiry (“Journal”).

I. Representations and Warranties

By agreeing to the below license, you are verifying that:

1. You are the author of the Reflection, or the authorized agent of the author(s) and copyright holder (if different from the author(s));
2. The author(s) named in this submission: have approved the work for publication; have agreed to submit the Reflection to the Journal; accept full responsibility for the content of the Reflection if there are multiple authors named in this submission, and you are the corresponding author (or his/her authorized agent), you have obtained assurances from all co-authors of the items listed in (1) above prior to submission and have the authority to enter into this agreement on their behalf;
3. The Reflection is the original work of the Author(s) and does not contain any libelous or unlawful statements or infringe on the rights or privacy of others or those granted under FERPA, or contain material or instructions that might cause harm or injury; and
4. The Reflection has not been previously published, is not pending review elsewhere, and will not be submitted for review elsewhere pending the completion of the editorial decision process at the Journal.
5. If the Reflection is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by an agency or organization, you represent that you have fulfilled any right of review or other obligations required by such contract or agreement.

By submitting the Reflection, you represent and warrant that the above are true. Further, you agree to hold the Journal, its publisher, and its distributees harmless from any claim, action, or proceeding alleging facts that constitute a breach of any warranty enumerated above, and further agree to indemnify the Journal, its publisher, and its agents against all claims and expenses and attorney’s fees that may be incurred in defense against each claim, action, or proceeding.

II. Author’s Grant of Rights

As described below, first publication rights to articles, reviews and other works is granted to the Journal of Reflective Inquiry and its publisher but copyright for all work published in this journal is retained by the author(s).

If your Article is accepted for publication, you agree to grant to the Journal of Reflective Inquiry and its publisher worldwide first publication rights for the Article. You further agree to grant to the Journal of Reflective Inquiry and its publisher a non-exclusive license to publish, print, copy, transmit, display, distribute, archive, index, revise, and create new works derived from the Article (including the right to grant sub-licenses to third parties to do all of the foregoing), for the duration of the Article’s copyright, in all languages, throughout the world, in all media and formats.

If your Reflection is accepted for publication, you also agree to license your final published Reflection using the Creative Commons. To allow authors to control the use of their work, we allow authors to select the type of Creative Commons License used for their article. Our default will be Attribution (CC BY). If you would like to change your Creative Commons type, please indicate in the signature section below.

© Creative Commons Licenses

These licenses allow for a more flexible management of the exclusive rights offered by copyright protection, giving the creators the ability to choose the kinds of protections and freedoms that will govern the use of their work. This way, you can allow others to use your work while still protecting your intellectual property.
